The Design Range

Invitations All invitations are made to order and can be adapted to suit your individual requirements. For example you may wish to have "You're invited" rather than "Wedding Invitation". Where possible you can choose what you prefer. You can even personalise the cards with your wedding date and names on the front. I have a range of wording suggestions for the inserts but feel free to choose your own if you wish. A majority of the invitations are available in 3 standard sizes in addition to the Exclusive Range of Pockets, Scrolls, Cheque book invitations and Wallets. Most invitations are available in the colour of your choice along with a large choice of fonts, text colours and with your guests names pre-printed onto the invitations free of charge.

Reply Card A small printed card with envelope which is printed with the RSVP address. These are perfect for a fast and accurate response. If required dietary requirements can also be included in the RSVP card.

Save the Date Card When you need to notify your guests of your wedding date some time in advance, these cards are ideal. They advise guests to keep the date free and that a formal invitation will follow. With hectic lifestyles and holidays being booked early, these are a must especially if your wedding is during school holidays or a week day.

Wedding Card Post Box A very popular idea which sits on your gift table where guests can securely deposit cards, vouchers and monetary gifts. A lift off lid enables you to retrieve all your cards without spoiling the box. Decorated and personalised to match your stationery.

Order of Service / Order of the Day Welcomes and guides your guests through the ceremony providing details of readings, hymns or events of the day.

Menu Follows on the design of your invitations and details your choice of menu.

Place Cards Decorated to co-ordinate with your chosen design. These are provided with your guests names printed on or if required they can be left plain for you to hand write.

Thank-you Cards These are the same size and style as your invitation with either a blank insert for you to hand write or a choice of pre-printed messages.

Table Plan Serves an important purpose, but is also a remarkable feature at your reception. They are made to co-ordinate with your invitations and colour scheme. Available framed or unframed and are a lovely keepsake from your wedding day.
